

What is CYPN (Colorado Young Professionals Network)?

The Colorado Association of REALTORS® has over 23,000 members without a networking group for Young REALTORS® in Colorado. The Colorado YPN was created as a networking group to engage Young REALTORS® to become more active in leadership at the local, Colorado Association of REALTORS® and National Association of REALTORS®. The Colorado YPN was created to help form a cohesive YPN group amongst the local associations which will bring big results and cooperation from each association.

What is the CYPN's Mission?

The Colorado YPN is designed to assist new and young agents as they transition into the real estate industry and give its existing members the tools they need to advance their careers. The Colorado YPN provides support for new agent recruitment, agent partnerships and mentorships, encouraging local, state and national participation through volunteering and participation, event coordination & awareness, and educational opportunities.

Who can be a member of CYPN?

The membership of the Colorado YPN will be made up with REALTORS® or affiliate members under the age of 40. The Colorado YPN emphasis will be on shared input from all participating REALTORS® Association members and open to the same. Furthermore, a diversified makeup of different cultures is also encouraged.
